Solidarity in times of pandemic is necessary. San Antonio del Sur is a municipality of heroes who save lives although they are not doctors, because they share what they have with those people who are in the isolation centers.

And they not only provide medicines but utensils, food, cleaning, even knowing that not all of them will be recognized publicly, they decide to contribute their grain of sand, because they feel grateful for this revolution of good men, of grateful beings who show solidarity and give their I step forward because the strength of a country helps to move forward because as President Miguel Mario Díaz Canel Bermúdez said "Strength Cuba that we will live and win"
